

Present in celebration of the 130th year of the family moving into the mansion

Greene Line Steamers, the last packet company on the Ohio River

An entertaining talk by Travis C. Vasconcelos

Where: The Carriage House at the Howard Steamboat Museum

When Thursday 10th of October 2024 at 7:00pm

A look back at the halcyon days of packet operations on the Ohio River in its last days. Focusing on the Greene family and how their company survived well into the 20th century.

$5.00 suggested donation to attend